

BYLAWS OF CEDAR CREST BIBLE FELLOWSHIP CHURCH OF ALLENTOWN, PA

June 8, 2025

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the church shall be CEDAR CREST BIBLE FELLOWSHIP CHURCH OF ALLENTOWN, PA (referred to in this document as “the Church”). The Church is located at 1151 South Cedar Crest Boulevard, Allentown, Pennsylvania, 18103, Salisbury Township, Lehigh County. The Church address also functions as the principal office.

ARTICLE II

Constitution

The constitution of the Church is the FAITH AND ORDER of the Bible Fellowship Church and the Standing Rules of the Annual Conference. As a member of the Annual Conference of the Bible Fellowship Church, the Church is bound by its legislation approved by that body. These Bylaws are subject to the provisions contained in the FAITH AND ORDER of the Bible Fellowship Church.

ARTICLE III

Purpose

To glorify the Triune God by exalting Him, edifying and equipping His Church and evangelizing the world with His Gospel.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

The membership of the Church is composed of people, who through faith in Christ, have been regenerated and have given testimony of the assurance of the forgiveness of sin, have been baptized by immersion, and have committed themselves to the discipline and fellowship of the Church as set forth in the FAITH AND ORDER of the Bible Fellowship Church and the Bylaws of Cedar Crest Bible Fellowship Church of Allentown, PA.

A. ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP

1. Persons requesting membership in this church shall attend an established course of instruction approved by the Board of Elders for prospective members. They shall, during the course of instruction, acknowledge confession of faith in Christ and acceptance of the FAITH AND ORDER of the Bible Fellowship Church by personal testimony and by signing the application for membership provided by the Church. The Board may waive attendance at the established course of instruction based on special instruction for persons whose circumstances prevent them from attending the regular membership course, or who have attended the instruction sessions within the previous two years. Those under the age of 16 may be received as full, active members because membership in the Kingdom of God is not determined by age. They will, however, not be allowed to vote or hold an elected Church office until they reach the age of 16

2. Applicants may also be received as members by transfer from another Bible Fellowship Church.
3. An “Active Member” is defined as a person who regularly attends the physical weekly gathering for corporate worship, serves within the church, joins a Life Group, engages with the local church body, and supports the church through faithful giving (per availability and capability; excluding extenuating circumstances – e.g., multiple residences, homebound, employment obligations, family obligations, etc. considered).

B. MEMBERS IN VOCATIONAL CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

We gladly recognize that God will call members of our congregation into full time Christian service which will necessitate their moving out of our local area. Because they are a part of our Church family and will remain in a special relationship with us as their home church (exercising care for them and authority over them), it is good to retain a formal relationship while yet recognizing their change in status and responsibilities. Upon the call of an individual or family of active members to full time service, they shall be classified as Members in Vocational Christian Ministry. They shall only have voting privileges during times of recognized home ministry, or if their ministry allows them to live locally and regularly attend the stated services of the Church.

C. ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

Any friends who worship with this church regularly, are members of another church, and because of distance are not able to participate in the life of their home church, but wish to retain membership in their home church; or members of our own church who find it necessary to be away for a prolonged period of time, may become Associate Members, and enjoy all the privileges of membership, except that they will not be able to vote or hold an elected church office. Qualifications for Associate Membership will be the same as for regular membership. Such members shall render to the church as many of the duties of the active member as they are able to perform.

D. INACTIVE

Members who absent themselves for 3 months without legitimate excuses and without showing any interest by communicating with the church shall be placed on an Inactive Membership roll. The Elders shall define the term “legitimate excuse” in every case. Inactive members are not eligible to speak or vote in “members only” meetings or hold an elected church office. Any member against whom such action is taken, shall be informed of that action, and may be reinstated as an active member upon their faithful attendance to the stated services for 3 consecutive months, their written request to the Membership and Baptism Committee, and an interview by the Membership Committee.

E. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership in this church may terminate in any of the following ways:

1. By death.
2. By transfer to another Bible Fellowship Church. At his request, the Board may remove a member's name from this church roll and may forward a letter of transfer to a designated Bible Fellowship Church with which he is uniting. A letter of transfer will not be issued to an unspecified church.
3. By withdrawal. At their request, a member may have their name removed from Church's roll. If he desires, a letter of withdrawal may be sent to a non-Bible Fellowship Church with which he is uniting. Members may not withdraw their membership while in the disciplinary process.
4. By exclusion. Should a member become an offense to the church and its good name, the church may terminate his membership, but only after faithful efforts have been made to bring such member to repentance and correction as indicated under 'Discipline.'
5. By failure to respond to the church 3 months after becoming "Inactive."

F. DISCIPLINE

Scripture is clear that each church will endure false teaching, divisions, quarreling, and the habitual sin of unrepentant members. Jesus Christ, the head of His Church, has promised to exercise His discipline on those who would possess His name yet live contrary to it. He has entrusted His church and empowered them through His Spirit to be intentional, careful, and diligent in exercising discipline with those who would threaten the purity and unity of His Church. Therefore, the Church has sought to lay out a biblical and intentional process for church discipline.

*All principles, processes, and applications are derived from Matt. 16:15-20; 18:15-20; 1 Cor. 5:1-13; 11:28-32; 2 Cor. 2:5-11; 1 Tim. 5:19-21; Rev. 2:20-23; 3:19-20

1. The definition of discipline
 - a. There are two types of discipline, proactive and reactive. Proactive discipline is the practice of the means of grace amongst the local church to build everyone up in love towards maturity, holiness, and habitual repentance from sin to preserve the faith of all (Heb. 10:19-25). Reactive discipline is the response of the local church to a member who is living in unconfessed and unrepentant habitual sin.

2. The basis for discipline

a. The authority of Jesus Christ

- i. Jesus owns the church (Matt. 16:18, Eph. 1:22)
- ii. Jesus entrusted his authority to the church (Matt. 16:19; 18:18, Eph. 4:11-14)
- iii. Jesus exercises his judgment through the church (Matt. 18:20; 1 Cor. 5:4, Ps 15:1-2)

b. The purposes of Jesus Christ

- i. The holiness of His church (2 Cor. 7:1; Heb. 12:4)
- ii. The repentance of His church (1 Pet. 1:14-16)
- iii. The presentation of His church as pure (Eph. 5:26-27)

3. The purposes of discipline are:

- a. To uphold the glory of God and the name of Christ in the world
- b. To restore the offending member to fellowship with the Lord and His people.
- c. To preserve the peace and purity of the Church.
- d. To protect younger or weaker members of the Church from spiritual harm.
- e. To maintain the testimony of the Church.

4. The causes of discipline: Any habitual sin that is not confessed, repented of, and forsaken. This is not to say that we do not expect believers to struggle against sin and sometimes fail. The issue is not that we discipline an unsuccessful struggle against a recognized sin, but that we give serious concern to a rationalization of behavior which excuses the practice of sin. Categories of note are:

- a. The denial of any foundational doctrine of the Christian Faith (e.g., the Trinity, the Deity of Christ, Justification by faith alone in Christ alone, the resurrection of Christ, the virgin birth, etc.)
- b. The propagation of heretical or doctrinally divisive issues which threaten the unity of the fellowship. (Gal. 1:8-9; Tit. 1:1:9-14; Rev. 2:14-16)
- c. The causing of relational divisions within the Body which threaten the unity of the fellowship. (e.g., gossip, slander, lying, malice, envy, bitterness, unforgiveness, etc.) (Rom. 16:17-18; 1 Cor. 1:10-13, Jude 18-19, Romans 2:6-8)

- d. Public and private sinful practices and/or disorderly conduct which threatens to damage other members of the Church or to bring scandal upon the name of Christ and His Church. (e.g., lust, sexual immorality, pornography use, behaving in a way contrary to God's created order and purpose [e.g., homosexual behavior and gender dishonesty], drunkenness, illegal drug use, outbursts of anger, violence, abuse, insubordination to authority, idleness, dishonest practices, crudeness, etc.)

5. The procedure in discipline:

Where there appears to be cause for disciplinary action against a member of the Church, the Board of Elders shall oversee the process, following Biblical principles as outlined in Scripture (e.g., Matthew 5:23,24, 18:15-20; Galatians 6:1-5) primarily, as well as the Board of Elders approved "Disciplinary Process."

6. Restoration to fellowship:

In most cases, the Church shall reinstate a previously disciplined member upon his/her request and expression of repentance and satisfactory evidence that he/she has made the necessary correction. There may be situations where the Board of Elders may determine that it is unwise to welcome an offender back as a member. The Board of Elders will guide this process in accordance with the current "Disciplinary Process."

G. OFFICIAL MEMBERSHIP

The official membership count reported to Annual Conference of The Bible Fellowship Churches shall include Active Members and Members in Vocational Christian Ministry.
